Beschreibung

Das Corpus Vasorum Antiquorum (CVA) ist eine internationale Publikationsreihe, die unter dem Patronat der Union Académique Internationale steht. Ziel ist die vollständige Erfassung der antiken Gefässe in den Museen und Sammlungen der Welt. Die Gefässe sollen der Forschung insbesondere in einer ausreichenden Abbildungsdokumentation von guter Qualität zugänglich gemacht werden. Jedem Gefäss ist ein Katalogtext beigegeben, der alle museographischen Angaben sowie eine Beschreibung des Erhaltungszustandes, der Dekoration und allfälliger Figurenbilder enthält. Die Gefässe werden datiert und innerhalb ihrer Gattung wissenschaftlich eingeordnet. Bisher sind weltweit mehr als 390 Bände der CVA-Reihe erschienen.

Die Herausgabe der Bände folgt einem vorgegebenen Standard, wird jedoch von den einzelnen am Projekt beteiligten Ländern organisiert und realisiert. In der Schweiz ist eine Kommission bei der Schweizerischen Akademie der Geistes- und Sozialwissenschaften (SAGW) für die Herausgabe zuständig. Von der schweizerischen Serie sind bis heute 9 Bände veröffentlicht worden.

Mit dem Band CVA Basel 5 wird die Publikation von in der Schweiz aufbewahrten Gefässen fortgesetzt. Der neue Faszikel enthält 36 bedeutende, attisch schwarzfigurige Vasen im Besitz des Antikenmuseums Basel und der Sammlung Ludwig.

10 Aug 2017 . The Corpus Vasorum Antiquorum provides access to a collection of images of primarily Greek ancient vases dating from 6,000 B.C. to 400 A.D. from more than 120 collections in 26 countries. Each museum that contributes to the CVA project may or may not include their image collections in the CVA online.
