Abstract. The present study represents a condensation of much of the theoretical thinking in archaeology by Leo Klejn of St. Petersburg over the past half century. It has in itself been underway for a decade or two in step with the timid opening, later the fall of the Soviet Union and the rebirth of Russia. The volume is the result.

Abstract. The Peruvian Middle Horizon (ca. AD 540–900) is characterized by the first appearance of imperialism in the Andes. During this period, the Huari of the central highlands Ayacucho region expanded their territory into many parts of the sierra and adjacent coast.
