THE 101 BEST BARS OF LOS ANGELES introduces you to L.A.'s oldest bar and its smallest, and takes you to an odd little tavern that serves neither beer nor wine. You'll discover the favorite downtown watering hole of J.F.K. and the preferred midtown cocktail lounge of Winston Churchill; the taverns where Marilyn Monroe met Joe DiMaggio, where Elvis left a new Cadillac as a tip, where Janis Joplin slugged Jim Morrison, where Marlon Brando walked off with the waitress and where Frank Sinatra wiled away the wee hours. Read of a long-gone salon that was undoubtedly the West Coast's largest and a mercifully defunct joint that was arguably California's roughest. Plus, every page provides the lowdown on what's happening now. It's the perfect guide to find Everyman's (and Everywoman's) favorite bar.
