“My name is Mary Beth Austin and I'm from Chicago, Illinois, 'cause that's where my nana lived. I know that.” Callie had chosen Austin because it would be easy for them to remember—Callie had gone to school there. And Chicago because John's mother had lived there before she'd died two years ago. “My name is Brittany.

Download CHICAGO - All Roads Lead To You lyrics. Headed north on a one-way trip I never thought I'd be back this way I never thought I'd be missing you Enough to suffer.

Chicago was a necessary stop for any travel east or west. A newspaperman even compared Chicago's status with the classic civilizations: "In ancient times, all roads led to Rome; in modern times all roads lead to Chicago". (Cronon 42). Chicago's rapid growth prompted the formation of the Riverside Improvement Company.

"Houston drafted me in the second round and Chicago in the third," he says. "Billy Reay was the Blackhawks coach and he phoned me — in those days they phoned — and said we small guys had to stick together and all the rah-rah-rah. I was pretty happy because Chicago was my father's favorite team — but after all that.

CHICAGO, Wednesday, April 2, 1873. The trite saying of old, "All roads lead to Rome," finds its counterpart to-day, as far as the North-west is concerned, in "All roads lead to Chicago." From that focal point at the south end of Lake Michigan, a radiation of innumerable railways reaches to all parts of a vast and immensely.
